BEVERLY FALCO

Beverly Falco serves as an impartial investigator for public and private organizations.

As an attorney investigator, Beverly investigates a variety of workplace and on-campus complaints involving harassment, discrimination, retaliation and other misconduct.

Prior to joining Ellis Investigations Law Corporation, Beverly conducted investigations into discrimination, harassment, sexual violence, retaliation and whistleblowers complaints on campus and in clinical spaces at the University of California, Irvine. Among other things, she also worked at an organization, preparing and presenting workshops on sexual assault to local high schools. She obtains certifications for Domestic Violence Victim Advocacy and Sexual Assault Victim Advocacy.

Beverly is based in Orange County and conducts investigations throughout California.
