Tracy Law
TRACY LAW

Tracy Law serves as an impartial investigator of sensitive and complex workplace complaints.

Tracy is a Partner at Ellis Investigations Law Corporation. They conduct investigations into a variety of issues in the workplace and on campus, including complaints of sexual misconduct, discrimination, retaliation, fraud and employee misconduct.

Prior to joining Ellis Investigations Law Corporation in 2019, Tracy litigated on behalf of current and former employees at Bohm Law Group in Sacramento, California. They managed employment cases through all litigation stages. Tracy also taught a course, Privacy in the Workplace, at Tulane University School of Law as an adjunct professor and presented as a speaker at several Tulane University events. Currently, Tracy is also a faculty member of the Association of Workplace Investigators (AWI) Training Institute, which teaches a curriculum of necessary skills for performing impartial workplace investigations.

Tracy is based in Sacramento and conducts investigations throughout California.
